Return conditions:

Your right of withdrawal applies up to 30 days after receiving your order. After exercising your right of withdrawal, you must return the product within 14 days.

We kindly request that you return the product, if possible, in its original packaging, carefully packed and unfolded, to prevent damage during transport.

You are only liable for any diminished value of the goods resulting from handling other than what is necessary to establish the nature, characteristics and functioning of the goods. This means you may inspect the product as you would in a physical store.

For example, car mats may be tested for fit, but this must be done carefully. If a product becomes visibly dirty or shows clear signs of use, this may result in the product no longer being resalable as new. In that case, the reduction in value may amount to the full purchase price.
